PRESS RELEASE

MERIDIAN CELEBRATES TRIPLE WIN DURING CEDIA EXPO 2023 WEEK

Having spent the week in Denver at CEDIA Expo 2023, we have returned to our HQ in the UK having secured three industry award wins for our groundbreaking DSP9 Digital Active Loudspeaker. The DSP9 stood out in a competitive field to earn a CEDIA Awards for Best Hardware, a Residential Tech Today Innovation Award, and a CE Pro Product Award.

CEDIA Awards Best Hardware

Judged by a distinguished group of industry professionals, the CEDIA Awards Best Hardware category recognises exceptional novel hardware products from manufacturing companies. The DSP9's design, functionality, and overall contribution to the residential technology industry impressed the judges.

Residential Tech Today Innovation Award

The Residential Tech Today Innovation Award honours products for going above and beyond as solutions for every-day tech home, challenges and for helping serve the comfort and lifestyle wants and needs of homeowners. This award showcases our commitment to innovation and our dedication to providing customers with unparalleled audio experiences.

CE Pro Product Awards

The CE Pro Product Awards is a symbol of excellence in the custom electronics industry, and our DSP9 was hailed as a standout product in this category. The DSP9's ability to seamlessly integrate into custom electronics installations while delivering uncompromising audio quality made it a top choice for industry professionals.

The DSP9 Digital Active Loudspeaker is a masterpiece of product design and audio engineering, technology, and performance. The loudspeaker features a brand-new and iconic cabinet aesthetic that showcases a new design signature for the company, and produces outstanding fidelity, dynamics and power for cinemas and listening rooms.

To experience the Meridian DSP9, book a visit to the Meridian HQ to meet the team and see this award-winning product for yourself.
